

Islamic School of Irving Summer Homework Students Entering into Third Grade

AsSalamualaikum Wa Ramathu lillahi Wa Barakathahu Dearest ISI Families,

As research as shown over and over again summer learning is the key to ensuring student learners are well prepared and successful during their academic year.

JazakAllah Khair for taking the time to assist your child with the expected Summer Learning. It may be summer, but practicing essential skills will help ensure your child has a successful year in Third Grade. This success will help lay the groundwork to build your child's foundation as they embark upon their journey through elementary school. You will find on this page the summer learning break down and the expectations that ISI has for your incoming 3rd grade child as they come into school.

Please print or save the following pages to refer to as often as you need to.

Please help your child read and recognize the words from the Dolch and Fry's Sight Word List, if your child struggles with reading. This is something students are expected to have mastered by the end of second grade, but if your child needs practice then please address that. . (Links provided below.) Additionally, visit the library often and read award-winning books. Here are some good websites where you can find which books to read.
