Financial Aid Application For Tuition KG-High School

The Islamic School of Irving may offer limited Financial Assistance to cover part of the annual tuition. All other fees such as registration and RBM (Resource, books & materials fee) must be paid in full by the applicant, as per the school policy. Financial assistance will be available only to those applicants who meet the criteria established by the Financial Assistance Review Committee. Financial Aid is funded through Zakat/Sadaqa funds to help the families in need. There is no Financial Aid available for the Early Childhood Program.

1. Criteria

1. Student's satisfactory academic performance, behavior and discipline
2. Parent's gross income
3. Agreement to pay a share in the tuition
4. Number of children from the same family enrolled at ISI
5. Availability of funds
6. Meeting application deadline and payment history
7. Parent 20 hours of yearly Volunteerism
- 8.

Financial Assistance may be terminated at any time during the year if any or all of these criteria change or are not sustained.

2. Application Process

One application form must be submitted per family. Please provide a copy of the following:

1. Current academic performance – report card. (ISI students do not need to submit one)
2. Proof of income (pay stub or W-2 form)
3. Last two months Bank Statement
4. Proof of expenses (Apt. rent/ House payment, car payment, etc.)
5. IRS Tax Return for last two years–2019-2021

New and Existing ISI Students + Siblings Application Deadline: July 30, 2021

Financial assistance decision for existing students + siblings: August 15, 2021.

Late registered students' Application Deadline: August 15, 2021

Discount results for late registered students (based on availability of funds): August 31, 2021

All applications must be returned in person at the finance office by the deadline date or emailed to us at finance@islamicschoolofirving.org.

Late and/or incomplete applications will not be considered - no exceptions.

3. Application Review Process: ISI Financial Aid Committee will review and rank each application. Where necessary, interviews deemed will be arranged with the parents. Eligibility will be determined.

on the basis of the criteria mentioned above, as well as other factors. Final recommendations will be submitted to the School Advisory Board for final approval.

The Financial Aid Committee decides on the eligibility of applicants and the amount they receive. Due to a limitation of funds available, tuition assistance and amount given will be based on a first-come, first-served basis. In addition, parents will be required to volunteer for at least 20 hours per year. Parents who received tuition assistance previously but did not fulfill their financial obligations to ISI will not be granted any tuition assistance. Finally, receipt of tuition assistance in previous years does not guarantee an award or an award with the same value for this year.
